ABSTRACT

Nurjanah, Siti. 2018. Comparative Study of English for Diplomacy and for Tourism Purpose (A Case Study of a Tour Guide for President Barack Obama At Borobudur). A Thesis. English Education Study Program of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training Faculty Peradaban University. Yuniar Fatmasari, M.A.

Keywords: Comparison, English language, tour guide for diplomacy, tourism purpose, Borobudur temple.

The aim of this study was to compare English language used by tourist guide for diplomacy and tourism purpose at Borobudur temple. This was a descriptive qualitative study in which the data were taken from interview and documentation. Source of the data is the result of interview with Mr. Mura Aristina as the tour guide. The techniques of data analysis were data reduction, data display, and conclusion. Based on the result of the study it is found out that the English language used by tourist guide for diplomacy and tourism purpose was different from eight aspects of English language characteristics. There are three aspects found in opening such as an expression of appreciation, under starter or down tones, modals verb for formal situation. In content there is one aspect that is used passive sentence to keep formal situation through monolog. In closing there are four aspects such as an expression of appreciation, personal reason, justification and elaboration and apology. In other hand, there is a difference on duration in which the tour guide only needs is only 20 minute for diplomacy and 2 hours for tourism purpose.
